A growing network of establishments

Arts, sports and recreation comprise 848 establishments in the Principality in 2025. With 92 new structures created and 30 permanent strike-offs, this MES recorded a net gain of 62 additional entities over the year, a growth markedly faster than that of the Monegasque economy as a whole (+7.9% versus +3.1%). Its share of total establishments rose to 6.8%, up from 6.5% the previous year.

In detail, Sports activities alone account for nearly 390 structures (+29, i.e. +8.0% in one year), ahead of Arts creation and performing arts activities (379, +27, i.e. +7.7%) and Amusement and recreation activities (67, +6, i.e. +9.8%). Libraries, archives, museums and other cultural activities total 12 stable establishments.

Miscellaneous taxable entities represent nearly one in two active structures in 2025 (48.0%), compared with 15.6% for the Principality as a whole, reflecting the weight of sporting and cultural associations in this sector.

In 2025, Arts, sports and recreation generated a revenue of over €1.1 billion, up 8.5% on 2024. In a context where the Principality's turnover fell by 7.6% (excluding Financial and insurance activities), this MES stands out as the most dynamic in the Monegasque economy.

This performance is driven primarily by Sports activities and amusement and recreation activities, which account for 88.2% of the sector's turnover (€980.1 million, +11.1%). Among these, Amusement and recreation activities (including Gambling and betting activities) recorded the strongest growth at +22.1% to €332.8 million, while Sports activities grew by 6.2% to €647.3 million.

The picture is more mixed for Arts creation and performing arts activities, whose turnover fell by 8.2% to €128.7 million. In detail, Support activities to arts creation and performing arts declined by 9.7% and Arts creation activities by 17.1%, only partially offset by a slight increase in Activities of performing arts (+2.2%). Libraries, archives, museums and other cultural activities, for their part, recorded growth of 4.2% in 2025 to €2.9 million.

In 2025, the Arts, sports and recreation sector employs 2,583 salaried workers, up 6.7% compared with 2024 (+163 employees), at a time when salaried employment in the Monegasque private sector is declining by 1.2%. The MES also counts 125 employers, virtually unchanged (+1 unit, +0.8%), a trend broadly similar to the Principality as a whole (+0.4%).

Sporting activities and amusement and recreation activities concentrate 54.6% of the sector's workforce with 1,410 employees (+114, +8.8%). They are driven primarily by Sports activities, which alone gained nearly 80 individuals in one year (+79, +6.4% to 1,331). Amusement and recreation activities recorded a notable rise of 76.3% (+34 employees to 78). On the employer side, Sports activities also dominate, with 84 employers (+2, +2.4%) accounting for two-thirds of the MES.

Arts creation and performing arts activities bring together 992 employees (+46, +4.8%), driven by Support activities to arts creation and performing arts (+58, +7.6% to 816 employees), despite a decline in Activities of performing arts (-12, -6.4% to 173 employees). Regarding employers, this NAF division contracted slightly to 23 units (-1, -4.2%).

Libraries, archives, museums and other cultural activities count 181 employees in 2025 (+3, +2.0%) with a stable base of 5 employers.

A young, predominantly French workforce

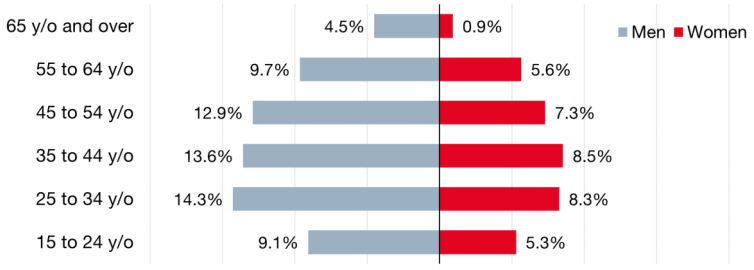

Arts, sports and recreation employ proportionally more men than the total Monaco's private sector: 64.1% compared with 61.1%.

The age structure is characterised by an overrepresentation of 15–24-year-olds (14.4% compared with an average of 7.7%), with a mean age of 41.1 years, below the private-sector average of 42.5 years. The 35–44 age group is the most represented, accounting for 22.1% of employees.

In terms of place of residence, 84.8% of employees live in France, a proportion slightly higher than the private-sector average (81.5%). More specifically, 23.9% live in neighbouring municipalities and 52.2% elsewhere in the Alpes-Maritimes department. Monaco accounts for 12.5% of the MES's workforce, compared with 10.1% across all sectors combined. By contrast, the proportion of employees residing in Italy is significantly lower than the average (2.7% compared with 8.3%).

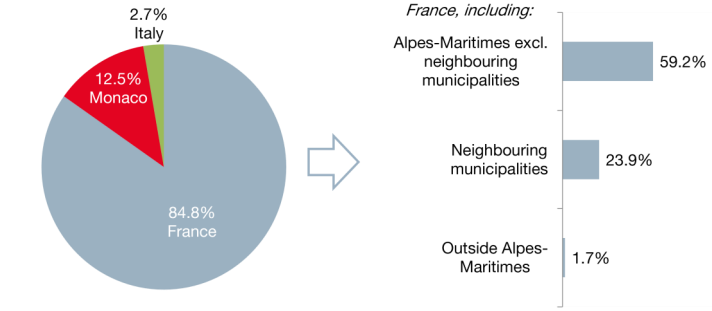

Employees of French nationality predominate, representing 75.5% of the workforce, almost 14 percentage points higher than the average across all sectors (61.8%). Italians account for 8.8% of employees compared with an average of 15.1%, while Monegasques are slightly overrepresented (3.4% versus 1.7%).

The new classification of economic activities "NAF 2025" has been in application in the Principality since 1 January 2026. In this context, the groupings and labels of the major economic sectors (MESs) have been redefined. Consequently, the sectoral results have been recalculated and are not comparable with those in previous publications.
